TERESA L. DEPPNER, CLERK
U.S. District Court
Southern District of West Virginia

Accordingly, the Court concludes that no party opposes the dismissal of this action pursuant to the Plaintiff's Motion for Voluntary Dismissal nor does any party seek to have any separate or separable claim retained on the docket.

Therefore, the Court doth hereby Order, Adjudge and Decree that this civil action, and all claims raised herein, be, and they are each hereby, dismissed and dropped from the docket of this Court with prejudice, each party to bear its own costs and attorneys' fees and that all counsel of record be, and each is hereby, relieved of any obligation further to maintain original discovery materials.
